Annual Action Plan: June 1, 2007–May 31, 2008

Unit: Department of Art

UTPA Mission: The University of Texas-Pan American (UTPA) serves the higher education needs of a rapidly growing, international, multicultural population in the South Texas Region. The University preserves, transmits and creates knowledge to serve the cultural, civic, and economic advancement of the region and the state. The University provides students advanced instruction in academic programs offered through innovative delivery systems that lead to professional certification, and baccalaureate, master's and doctoral degrees. Through teaching, research, creative activity and public service, UTPA prepares students for lifelong learning and leadership roles in the state, nation and world community.

Division: Academic Affairs

Unit Head: Anthony Crisafulli

Unit Mission: The Art Department will provide academic excellence in its undergraduate and graduate programs to sustain the mission of the College of Arts and Humanities and the University of Texas-Pan American. Through its curriculum the department will seek to develop a spirit of independent thinking combined with a firm understanding of the skills demanded for the students in their chosen area of study. Students will be brought into contact with community artist/teachers for the purpose of developing the student's personal values to visualize those values through artistic expression.

It is the intent of the Art Department to provide an exceptional teaching/learning experience, designed to meet the changing needs of the students through the creation of a student-centered, intellectually stimulating, multicultural learning environment that promotes lifetime learning.

UTPA Goal: 1: Provide students with a quality educational experience that enables them to complete their educational goals in a timely fashion.

Academic Affairs Objective: 1.A. The Provost's Office will support the Colleges and Departments to establish a systematic methodology for the collection, reporting, benchmarking and improving continuance of students in degree programs as measured by key outcome measures associated with students in continuance degree programs.

College/AVP Objective:

1.A.1. The College of Arts and Humanities (COAH) will establish a systematic methodology for collecting, reporting, and benchmarking.

1.A.2. The College of Arts and Humanities (COAH) will improve continuance of students in degree programs in the College as measured by the outcome measures associated with continuance of students (graduation, retention, persistence, and success in gatekeeper courses).
